DIE IS CAST

The Two Forces Grapple at Pittsburgh, and Will Fight It Out.

GENERAL STRIKE ORDER

Some Union Men, it is Reported, Have Signed Contract and Will Not Strike.

THE LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

THE STRIKE IN EARNST.

Pittsburg, Pa., August 7.—The die is cast. The battle of the giants is on in earnest, whether to ignominious defeat of one side or the other, or compromise remains to be seen. It had been merely a skirmish, each side trying to find the vulnerable spot in each other's armor. Now it is different, brought about by the actual issuance of President Shafter's long talked of strike order. This order was promulgated last evening to take effect after the last turn of the mills on August 10. What the result will be no man can foretell, but judging by the expressed determination of both parties to the controversy, the battle will be waged fast and furiously. Much money will be lost, thousands upon thousands of men will be idle, great suffering is looked for, even bloodshed and death are possible and feared.

The strike call includes practically all amalgamated men in the United States Steel Corporation's employ, not now on strike. It was issued from the Amalgamated Association headquarters and mailed to all Amalgamated lodge officials who are expected to call their men into the strike.

Today both sides are busy. The manufacturers claim to be confident of victory, while the others are equally as certain. The union men in some mills say they will not strike, as they have signed mill contracts. The strikers say that one hundred thousand will be out Monday.

The text of President Schaffer's call is as follows: Brethren—The officials of the United States Steel trust have refused to recognize as union men those who are now striving for the right to organize. The executive board has authorized me to issue a call upon all Amalgamated and other union men in name and heart to join in the movement to fight for labor's rights.

We must fight or give up forever our personal liberties. You will be told that you have signed contracts, but you never agreed to surrender those contracts to the United States Steel Corporation. Its officers think you were sold to them just as the mills were, contracts and all.

Remember, before you are agreed to any contract you took an obligation to the Amalgamated Association. It now calls you to help in this hour of need.

Unless the trouble is settled on or before Saturday, August 10, 1901, the mills will close when the last turn is made on that day.

Brethren, this is the call to preserve our organization. We trust you and need you. Come and help us and may right come to a just cause. Fraternally yours

T. J. SHAFER.

STATE GUARD ENCAMPMENT.

Louisville, August 7.—State military companies are now en route to the encampment at Owensboro. It begins tomorrow.

FARMER MURDERED.

Middlesboro, August 7.—James Kropf, a farmer, was found a mile away from home murdered and robbed.

PROMINENT MAN SHOT.

Flemingsburg, August 7.—James Markwell shot and mortally wounded Russell Hale, who cannot survive the day. Markwell says he regrets the deed, and did it when angry. They are both prominent men.

TWO SHOT IN GREEN.

Greensburg, August 7.—W. L. Mudd, an old citizen, was shot and killed and his son was mortally shot, in a fight over an old grudge, on the street with Joe and Jim Cantrell today.

NINE CASES OF TY.

PHOID IN ONE FAMILY.

Princeton, Ky., August 7.—Monroe Coleman is a prominent farmer of the Crider neighborhood, this county. A son of his was in the city and stated that the father and eight children were confined to their beds with typhoid pneumonia, and at present the chances for the recovery of five are slight. Only the mother and two children are free to attend the sick.

THE TEACHERS.

Institute Continues to Be of Great Interest Here.

Various Matters Were Discussed at the County Institute Today.

THE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The county teachers' institute convened again this morning with the attendance somewhat increased over the enrollment of yesterday. After the announcements and the opening exercises, grammar was taken up and ably discussed by Prof. J. P. McQueen. He discussed three numbers. Is a knowledge of it necessary to a correctness of language? Should exercises in syntax be used? and the discussion was thoroughly prepared and very interesting.

Prof. W. W. Morris took up the value of analysis and diagramming, and "Pure English and What It Is;" of the same subject and fully explained many interesting points in connection with the study.

Prof. Joe Ragdale took up Psychology and discussed it from the following divisions: Interest, Attention, Memory, Habit and the value of imagination as a factor in character building. The discourse was ably prepared and strongly illustrated.

This finished the work of yesterday afternoon and the work under today's head was taken up.

Nature study by Mrs. Webb was a feature of the session. She told how to use leaves, how to use flowers, how to use fruits and seeds and her discussion was one of the most interesting on the program.

Miss Addie Edwards took up the study of dew, rain, ice, frost, snow and familiar animals under the same head.

This will be about as far as the work will go today but the institute hopes to catch up before the session is closed.

THE RECOMMENDATIONS.

NAMES SUBMITTED TO THE STATE BOARD BY CHAIRMAN POTTER'S FACTION.

Pursuant to a call from Chairman Potter, the democratic county committee met at the court house this afternoon and decided on the following to recommend to the state election board from which to select a member of the county election board: W. R. Hoeker, J. M. Hart, Wyna Tally, Lucien Durrett and Frank Diegel.

NO ARRANGEMENTS.

SON OF THE LATE REV. JAS. FRAZIER ARRIVES FROM EVANSVILLE.

The remains of the late Rev. James M. Frazier, the Presbyterian minister who drowned himself here Sunday night are still at Nance's undertaking establishment and no funeral arrangements have been made; nor have relatives asked to take charge. A son, Clarence Frazier, a one legged man who has charge of an L. & N. crossing at Evansville, arrived this morning and has wired his brothers in Mississippi when they are heard from, the funeral arrangements will probably be made.

MARRY AT FULTON.

YOUNG LADY WELL KNOWN HERE BECOMES A BRIDE.

Miss Mayme Elliott, daughter of Prof. Milton Elliott, of West Kentucky College, Mayfield, and Mr. Charles West, a traveling salesman in the employ of the Merit Pants factory, were married last evening at Fulton. They are popular young people and the bride is well known in Paducah, where she has often visited her cousin, Miss Aline Bagby.

They arrived here this morning en route to St. Louis and Colorado Springs on a bridal tour leaving at noon.

KENTUCKY GOOD ROADS.

Regarding the good roads movement in Kentucky Col. I. B. Hall, who is at the head of it, says:

"So far as the officers and members of the Good Roads Association in this state are concerned it is intended to keep up the agitation. A directors' meeting of the Good Roads Association will be called early in September at which all interested parties will be invited to take part in considering the best means of keeping alive the work which began with the meetings held in this city, Hopkinsville and Owensboro. Notice will be given of the date of this meeting and it is likely some plans will be submitted and accepted by which every county in the state will be aroused to the necessity of improving the public highways."—Louisville Times.

Several of the doctors report a slight increase in the sickness of the city.

THE EIGHTH

The Colored People are Ready to Have Their Big Celebration Tomorrow.

A LARGE CROWD EXPECTED

There Will Be an Abundance of Amusement Everywhere in the City—Good Order Expected.

PREPARATIONS ARE COMPLETE

Tomorrow is the 8th of August and it is probable that the crowd of colored people in Paducah will be the largest ever known. Elaborate preparations have been made for the annual celebration here, and the people will have plenty of entertainment at both the fair grounds and La Belle park.

The 8th of August is always a gala day for the colored people in this section and the best of order is generally maintained throughout the city. Judge Sanders stated this morning that there will be no police court tomorrow, owing to the fact that most of the officers will be looking after the large crowds and that he hoped that order would be as good this year as last, when hardly an arrest was made, although there were hundreds of strangers in the city. If there are any cases of importance to be tried in the court, however, Judge Sanders will hold a session to accommodate the defendants.

Tomorrow the railroads will run excursions into Paducah from all points and a big crowd will be in attendance at the celebrations tomorrow. There will be horse racing, merry go round ring, and a company of singers, dancers and cake walkers at the grounds.

Turner's band of Evansville has been secured and will furnish the music for the races and other sports. Jones' band of the city will play for the dancers. A game of baseball between Paducah and Dyersburg teams will be played.

The city will have out an extra force of officers to see that no disorder of any kind occurs, and the managers of the entertainments in various places will co-operate with them.

DIED FROM TYPHOID.

MRS. JULIA SINGER DIES AT SIXTH AND JEFFERSON STREETS.

Mrs. Julia Singer, aged 25, wife of Mr. Harry Singer, the well known barber at the Palmer House shop, died this morning at 603 Jefferson street from typhoid fever, after a several weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Singer resided here about a year ago, but returned to St. Louis, and did not come back to Paducah until about three months ago. The remains will be taken to St. Louis this evening for burial.

It was in that place she was born and resided most of her life.

NEW BUILDING.

MR. JOSEPH L. FRIEDMAN TO BUILD ONE ON BROADWAY.

Mr. Joseph L. Friedman is to have erected a fine business house on Broadway, near Fifth, east of the two buildings occupied by the News and Register offices. He will also have another story built to the latter buildings. Contractor F. W. Katterjohn will have the contract for the work, which will begin shortly.

AGAIN ENTERED

Geo. O. Hart & Sons Visited By Thieves Last Night.

Fine Pistols, Knives and Razors Stolen.—The Police Have the Case.

The hardware establishment of George O. Hart & Son was again entered last night by burglars and a large amount of goods taken.

The discovery was made by a clerk when he opened up the store this morning. The burglars entered the building by the side door and took about twenty fine pistols, a large number of the best grades of pocket knives, several dozen butcher knives and many razors.

The exact amount of the goods stolen has not been determined as the men have been too busy to make an inventory. The loss will amount to $150 or $200, however. It will be remembered that the building was entered about two weeks ago, and a large number of pistols and razors stolen. All the goods stolen were taken from the show cases and only the best was taken. The police are working on the case.

A CARD.

To the Public: I see that the Carpenters' union No. 559, of Paducah, has run a boycott on the firm of Chas. M. Leake & Co., on account of my giving a contract to a non-union man. I never asked any man whether he was a union carpenter or not. I asked them for figures according to my plans, and got the work done for $650 less than the so-called union men wanted to do it for. The facts in the matter are, they lacked judgment in bidding on the work and for that reason I did not think they could properly do the work and their bid was extortionate.

Mr. J. C. Craft, the contractor, has eight or ten men at work on my house—men who do not care to join a union, but are willing to work at a reasonable price in order to support their families rather than stand around on the corner agitating the working question. The firm of Chas. M. Leake & Co. have always been friendly to the unions and appreciate their patronage, but they have always had to bid on any work done for them, the union, and if they had not done it as cheap as their competitors would not have received the order.

As to my building houses it has nothing to do with my printing business. The firm of Chas. M. Leake & Co. employ nothing but union labor and use the union label. As to what I wish to do individually on the outside has nothing to do with the firm.

CHAS. M. LEAKE.

SOME CHANGES IN BOOKS

Committee Ordered to Advise for Bids for School Building Improvements.

MANY REPORTS IN LAST NIGHT

Trustees Bauer, Mammen and Fuller were absent from last night's meeting of the board of education. Supt. Hatfield's report to the board relative to the number of pupils in school last year was quite voluminous, and showed that there were 2196 white and 913 colored pupils enrolled.

The salary list for July was only $143.44. Treasurer R. G. Terrell was refunded $7,600 paid out of his own funds towards overdrawn account.

The treasurer's report showed: $41.23 on hand June 24, received since, $18,547.97, making at total of $18,589.01; disbursed $1,773.68, leaving on hand at present $16,815.33 from which amount the $7,600 refunded the treasurer is deducted.

Secretary Rose was instructed to order forty desks for some of the rooms in Lee and Washington buildings.

Chairman Leake, of the building committee reported that repairs have been about completed at the various buildings. The plans and specifications for heating the Washington and plumbing for Lee and Jefferson buildings shows that the cost will be about $6,000. The report was received.

The committee on examination and course of study made the following report, which was adopted:

To the Honorable Board of Education Paducah Public Schools: Gentlemen: We, your committee on examination and course of study beg leave to recommend the following changes and additions for the ensuing year:

Botany—Substitute Bergen's Elements for Kellerman's Elementary.

Latin—Add Cicero's Oration and Letters—Text Harpur and Gallup.

Algebra—Discontinue Elements of Algebra and continue arithmetic in the eighth grade.

Arithmetic—Drop from the ninth grade Prince's No. 7.

Drop Sabin's No. 3 from the grammar grades.

Substitute Milne's Elements of Arithmetic in grades 3, 4 and 5 for White's First Book.

Readers—Substitute Baldwin's readers 1, 2, 3 and 4 for McGuffey's Altemate, same numbers, and Lights to Literature Nos. 6, 7 and 8 in grades 6, 7 and 8 for the various texts used for reading in those grades. This is not to effect the use of Eggleston's American History in the 6th grade.

English Grammar and Composition—Substitute "The Mother Tongue" book I in grades 4, 5 and 6 for Long's Language Lessons Nos. 2 and 3, and "The Mother Tongue" book II in grades 7 and 8 for Maxwell's grammar.

Liberal rates for introduction and exchange have been obtained. In the primary grades there is no material change in cost of books. In the sixth the change in reading saves the pupil twenty-seven cents and gives more reading matter.

In the seventh grade the cost of the reading text is cheapened from 15 to 30 cents.

In the eighth grade a course is furnished for the whole year for practically what it did cost for half of the year.

By the change in the English grammar a saving of 15 cents is made in the three primary grades.

A communication relative to the St. Bernard Coal company, from Central Labor union, asking that no contract be let to it until the mining strike is settled, was tabled, a decision being cited in which it was decided that school boards could not discriminate where the law specifies that contracts must be let to the lowest bidder.

The secretary's report showed for the past twelve months, on hand August 1 1901, $2,754.21; received since from various sources amounts sufficient to total, $62,960.89. Deducting the expenditures from this amount, there is now left on hand $15,541.92.

PUBLIC OFFICES AND PRIVATE SNAPS.

It is beginning to be suspected that the methods employed in siphoning money into the county roads ought to be investigated. It has been openly and unequivocally charged that the county has been made by some one to pay $3 a day for teams, when others just as good could have been obtained from the farmers, who were anxious to hire them, for fifty cents less a day. It is also said that the county has been paying for bridges, culverts and similar improvements that were unnecessary and were built only for the purpose of permitting some one to get in a "graft." Some of the magistrates have in the past occupied good positions receiving pay from the county, and while there was possibly nothing wrong in this there is a serious question whether or not such magistrates would have secured the positions if they had not been magistrates, and voted to give the men jobs who in turn gave them jobs. Turn about is fair play, it is true, but if a magistrate by his vote helps give a man the place of road overseer, it does not necessarily follow that the overseer should in return give him a sinecure that imposes unnecessary expense on the county, and perhaps at the same time inflicts on the taxpayers an incompetent man. There has been too much of this "you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" in both the county and the city politics in the past, and it is time that the light of investigation were thrown on some of the things permitted by the county board of magistrates, and the men they have elected to fill some of the county offices. It might at least make some of them a little more careful in small matters like hiring teams from their friends at $3 a day when they could get them from some one else at $2.50.

It has been charged that county school trustees all over the state have been accustomed to use their positions for the advancement of their own interests or those of their friends. The Lexington Herald remarks, "anent the alleged abuse, of privilege: 'In certain districts trustees are elected because of promises to employ or appoint certain teachers; and it is undoubtedly true that among the thousands of trustees scattered over Kentucky some have been, and are, corrupt. During the deplorable contest of the past six or seven years it has been openly charged that the salaries of teachers have been tolled for political purposes, just as the meager wages of the attendants and employees in our lunatic asylums have been loved upon and tribute exacted. How widespread this corruption is, how cruel and exacting these tributes had been we have no means of knowing. It is not often that such a case as this is presented. It is not often that there is any exposure concerning such matters.'"

The Louisville Post, under the caption "No Danger of Negro Rule," says: "The census bulletin giving the population of Kentucky by counties, and classifying the males, females, native and foreign born, and white and colored, shows how ridiculous would be an attempt to thrust a race question into Kentucky politics. Out of a total population of 2,146,224, there are only 284,865 negroes. In not a single city or county in Kentucky are the negroes in the majority. They are powerless to control a single local government. Certainly, there is not the slightest danger that the 1,861,359 white people of Kentucky will ever be subjected to the rule of the 284,865 negroes. With the negro vote divided, and a large number of the negroes failing to vote, as in the last two elections in Kentucky, there is little doubt that a majority of the white people of Kentucky are against the Democratic machine."

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal says of the Maryland platform: "It is comforting at least to see that the platform adopted is sensible and practical. All the old crazes have been eliminated. The money question, the assaults on the supreme court, the initiative and referendum, the government control of everything and all the other fatuous idiosyncrasies that have been injected into former Democratic platforms have been ignored and allowed to sleep in peace. On the question of expansion not a word was said. This is eminently proper. Expansion is no longer an issue. It is an accomplished fact and it has no more place in a platform of the present day than has the question of the Louisiana purchase or the annexation of Texas."

The quick recognition from Supt. Wallace, of the Illinois Central, of the efficient services of the fire department at the fire Saturday morning is characteristic of the officials of that road. The Illinois Central, while a corporation, and all corporations are supposed to be soulless, is never slow to acknowledge a service, and the prompt testimonial of the company's appreciation of the good work done by the department, employees and others who assisted, is a fitting tribute to our excellent fire protection, and goes a long way towards lightening the arduous work of the boys when called to risk their lives to save others property. The action of the railroad, through its popular superintendent, has received the most favorable comment on all sides.

If Sanitary officer Schroeder is fired for "neglect of duty" which is only an euphemism employed by the council to let him down easy, he will have a mighty good come back at them. There are several more heads that might have to come off for the same kind of "neglect of duty." What the council will have to do is to get out its little bucket of whitewash again.

The apparent success of Senator Mc D. Ferguson indicates a victory for the machine wing of the Democratic party. Senator Ferguson belongs to "the gang," and is one of the daddies of the "reward fund" graft. He will run up against plenty of opposition in the convention next Saturday.

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal thinks that the quickest way to settle litigation these days is to follow the example of the Clarksville lawyers who during a trial temporarily abandoned the practice of law to practice with their guns.

It is reported that an oil well is being sunk in the Clark's river section. They have bored for so many things in that locality they are liable to be boring for "pure rye" next.

Even the railroad freight cars seem to have disappeared under the baleful effects of the drought. In the west grain is rotting in the field because there are no cars to carry it off.

A number of Spanish officers continue to tell how it all happened at Santiago. It was not known before that they had eyes in the back of their heads.

Some city officials evidently find "whitewash" more to their liking than pure Ohio river water.

It is now up to Aguinaldo to express an opinion on the Schley-Sampson controversy.

Disappointed again! President Kruger has not decided that he will visit America.

The board of health continues to meet tomorrow.

REVENUES INCREASE.

THERE IS NO DECREASE SINCE THE NEW LAW WENT INTO EFFECT.

Washington, D. C., August 5.—Congress thought it was reducing the government revenues by $40,000,000 when it repealed a number of internal revenue taxes last session.

For some unexplained reason, and Secretary Gage himself is at a loss to explain, the government revenues for July show an increase of about $2,400,000 over July 1900. Expenditures have decreased over $1,600,000 from July last year, so that instead of a deficit of $4,000,000 for July, as in July a year ago, the July statement this year will show a surplus of about $15,000, unless some emergency requiring an unexpected expenditure should arise. Today the internal revenue receipts for July, despite the supposed reduction in internal taxation, amounted to $28,388,190 for July, an increase over July last year of $767,501, while customs aggregated $21,363,963, an increase of $1,461,691. Miscellaneous receipts were $2,178,186, an increase of $128,986. Thus, notwithstanding the gallant effort of congress to prevent a surplus in revenues by reducing taxation, every source of revenue shows an increase for July and the unprecedented occurs—a small surplus for the first month of the fiscal year. It looks, then, as if congress might have to reduce revenues further.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. LITIGATION OVER.

THE HILLMAN CONTROVERSY IS FINALLY SETTLED BY LAWYERS.

The litigation involving the large Hillman estate in Marshall and Livingston counties has been compromised and all matters between the different parties have been adjusted and orders for confirmation of the sale have been agreed upon. St. Louis capitalists have now become the owners of the 40,000 acres of land between the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers which they propose to divide into a number of small farms. A part of this property will be used as an iron furnace in connection with the Grand Rivers plants. The news effecting the compromise was a P. Crockett of the Hopkinsville bar and J. S. Pilcher and T. M. Stegar of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. M. A. Hillman acquires all the property east of the Cumberland river known as the Trigg furnace lands.

Observations

...at Random

When one of the Washington correspondents is feeling gloomy and cast down over what he regards as unmerited criticism from his chiefs in the "home office," his friends usually try to cheer him up by telling him of a sad incident that happened to ex-Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath when the latter was on Newspaper Row in Washington, says an exchange. Mr. Heath had labored long and painfully over a particularly able dispatch. When he sent it to his paper he heaved a sigh of relief and felt proud. He remained in this happy and peaceful frame of mind for about an hour, when he was suddenly brought down to earth by receiving the following severe rebuke by wire: "Your story does not fit our headlines. How is this?"

Edwin C. Madden, the third assistant postmaster general, is waging a relentless and what promises to be a successful war on publications that abuse the second class mail privilege, says the New York Times. As a result he has attracted considerable attention from the publishing world. The stories of his early career are beginning to appear, as a matter of course.

Eugene Jeroloman, a publisher, says that not so many years ago, when Madden was a small pay clerk in a western postoffice, he, Jeroloman, who was located in that town, had occasion to make complaint about some rules of the postoffice department. He was referred to Madden. At the end of the conversation Madden said jokingly: "Never mind, when I am the head of a department down in Washington I'll have all those troublesome rules straightened out." It is doubtful if he had at that time any serious idea of ever being in Washington. Now he is practically the head of the auditing department of Uncle Sam's postal service.

WOULD HAVE COST HIM HIS LIFE.

Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have been using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE and take great pleasure in stating it gave me permanent cure of kidney disease which certainly would have cost me my life." Take none but Foley's.

DOVE SHOOTING POPULAR.

Dove shooting is now the vogue with local sportsmen, and they are having good luck in hunting the birds about the city. The open season for doves began a day or two ago. The birds are said to be plentiful this year.

"Uncle Dan" Humphreys, of Virginia, is on a visit to a son here. He is a typical dandy of the olden times, and has his hair and beard plaited, wears brogans, and is duly suspicious of any one who tried to talk to him. He says he will live and die in "Old Virginia."

COOL DAYS IN MICHIGAN AND HOW TO ENJOY THEM.

Why stay in the sweltering heat where you are, when by a few hours travel on a fast train a delightfully cool temperature may be enjoyed with nights in which a blanket is necessary.

If you can afford to go, consider the advantages of a few weeks stay at Potoskey, Charlevoix, Traverse City, or some other of the numerous cool, delightful summer places in Michigan reached by the Pere Marquette railroad. The best train leaves Chicago at 7:30 p. m. every day except Sunday, with Pullman sleeper, and arrives at the Northern resorts early next morning. Your home agent can sell you excursion tickets to the Michigan resorts at reduced rates. Ask him about it, and get a copy of the pamphlets issued by the Pere Marquette Co., describing the various resorts, with hotel rates, etc. If you cannot get one at home send to the Michigan Central railroad ticket agent at Chicago, or direct to H. F. Moeller, G. P. A., Detroit, Mich.

Training Canary Birds.

In the canary breeding establishments of Germany only the male birds are valued, for the females never sing. The method of training the birds to sing is to put them in a room where there is an automatic whistle, which they all strive to imitate. The breeder listens to the efforts of the birds and picks out the most apt pupils, which are then placed in another room for further instruction.

Deals in Sugar Shores.

Financial reports show that no less than 13,251,283 shares of Sugar common stock were bought and sold on the New York Exchange during the year 1900. This is the same thing as saying that the entire common stock changed hands forty times over.

BOTH CONFIDENT.

The General Order for Steel Strike Not Issued--Preparing for Conflict.

Pittsburg, August 6.—The general steel strike order has not yet been issued, and is not expected until the last of the week. The steel combine claims that it is starting up its mills with non-union labor in two or three places.

The following dispatches show the trend of affairs:

Pittsburg, August 6.—Interviews were had today with local and national officials of various labor organizations on the Amalgamated strike.

Simon Burns, president of the Window Glass Workers' Association, said: "The Glass Workers' Association is in thorough sympathy with the Amalgamated men. We will give them substantial aid, when it is necessary."

L. R. Thomas, president of the Pattern Makers' League: "We will give the Amalgamated Association all the assistance in our power."

I. N. Myers, member of the national executive board of Knights of Labor: "The Knights of Labor have offered and will give them practical aid when they need it."

John P. Ryan, general secretary of the structural iron workers: "The Amalgamated Association will have the sympathy and help of all organized labor."

John Kuzler, president and treasurer of the American Flint Glass Workers' union: "Without regard to our sympathies, I prefer not to interfere in the Amalgamated troubles by making a statement."

New York, August 6.—It was reported on the stock exchange today that the Underwriting Syndicate, which supplied $200,000,000 for the "Financial support" of the United States Steel Corporation has been assessed another 12 1/2 per cent which, it was said, showed clearly in the increase in loans in Saturday's bank statements. It was asserted in this connection that the amount thus secured was to be employed as sinews of war in the fight against the labor union and incidentally forestall bear attacks on the trust securities. This, however, was denied in official quarters.

Couple Left at Noon for a Bridal Tour East—They Will Reside in Illinois.

From Tuesday's daily.

Miss Mary L. Van Dyck, of Paris, Tenn., and Mr. A. B. Hunsong, of Hustonville, Ill., were married at the residence of Mr. Alex. Woolfolk at Ninth and Jefferson streets this morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. W. H. Pinkerton, of the First Christian church.

Miss Van Dyck comes of a prominent Tennessee family and has many friends who will be pleasantly surprised to learn of her marriage.

Mr. Hunsong is a prominent merchant of Hustonville and has numerous friends there. The bride has been visiting Miss Lydia Woolfolk and came here several days ago by agreement with her fiancé. They left at noon for Buffalo and a bridal tour east, and will reside at Hustonville.

The groom is a prominent young banker and the bride has often visited Miss Woolfolk here. When she left home Sunday nothing was known of her intended marriage, hence it will come as a great surprise.

MR. IRVIN COBB TO BE MANAGING EDITOR OF THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

Mr. John M. McLean, who came to Paducah three months ago to accept the managing editorship of the Daily Democrat, and who has been ill from malarial fever for the past ten days at the home of his mother in Murray, has at the advice of his physician resigned his position, effective Saturday, and will be succeeded by Mr. Irvin S. Cobb, an old Paducah boy who has made a brilliant success on the Louisville Post in the past two years.

Mr. Cobb, who is one of the brightest writers in Kentucky, has done splendid work on the Democrat, and it is with regret that his resignation was accepted by the management. He will probably return to Frankfort, where he held a good position in the state auditor's office before he came to Paducah.

Mr. Cobb's many friends will welcome him back to Paducah, and wish him the same measure of success that he has been enjoying at Louisville.

DIED IN ST. LOUIS.

MR. T. D. HARRIS, THE WELL KNOWN GROCER, DIED THERE TODAY.

From Tuesday's daily.

Mr. T. D. Harris, the ex-grocer, for many years in business on Second street, near the market house, died shortly before noon in St. Louis, where he had been residing with two of his sons for several months past. Mr. Harris was 55 years old, and was one of the best known men in Paducah. He leaves a large family, but only three of his sons live here at present, the others being in St. Louis and Knoxville, Tenn. His daughters also live in the latter place.

The remains will be brought to the city for interment at Oak Grove, and will doubtless arrive tomorrow some time.

A LOVE LYRIC FROM THE GREEN.

(After Strato.)

As the hour the long day ends, when our friends we bid good-night, I thought the kissed me, too. But when, golden link on link, I would think remembrance out, Now I'm sure she kissed me then, now again I'm sure in doubt— Since I'm in Paradise in such wise I know is this here below still I go with steps forgotten—

—London Spectator.

From Tuesday's daily.

Two well known farmers of the lower part of the county, according to yesterday's Metropolis Herald, had trouble over the possession of a hog. They were Monroe Carnal and James Baynes. Says the Herald:

"Carnal first went to the farm and started off with the hog, which had been staying there for about two years when Baynes saw him and stopped him with the intention of taking it back. After some hot words Carnal drew a revolver and fired at Baynes, barely missing him, the powder burning his neck."

"The would-be murderer took to his heels and left the hog with Baynes. It was afterwards learned that Carnal gave himself up to the constable and is now out on bond."

From Tuesday's daily.

When finished the Arkansas state capitol will be a permanent exhibit of the state's resources if the suggestions of the architect and building commission are followed. The basement or first story will be of Arkansas granite, upper stories of Arkansas marble and woodwork of Arkansas timber.

THE TEACHERS.

Interesting Subjects Discussed Today--Work Slightly Behind.

From Tuesday's daily.

The second day of the teachers' institute began with a larger attendance than yesterday. The enrollment is as follows:

W. J. Gilbert, Dow Craig, W. H. Elliott, Rex Cornelison, C. Harkey, Landon Reed, I. M. Ragsdale, J. A. Graham, S. J. Billington, W. K. Rudolph, Willie Holland, Miss Mary Raney, Mrs. Florence Grant, J. S. Ragsdale, Luther Rice, J. W. Smart, C. C. Morris, Miss Ruth Harper, Miss Mary Chambers, Miss Etta Ware, W. T. Harrison, Miss Zetta Futrell, Thell Futrell, W. T. Lawrence, W. W. Morris, Jr., Miss Addie Edwards, A. L. Harper, J. P. McQueen, E. L. Huddleston, Miss Mamie Tomlinson, Miss Minnie Finney, Mrs. Nellie Webb, Miss Margaret Acker, Mrs. Jessie B. Potts, R. A. Woods, W. W. Morris, E. L. Simmons, Mrs. Lou Harper, Miss Lannie Knott, J. D. Burrow, Miss Nida Morton, R. G. Lowe.

The institute convened this morning about 9 o'clock and after the opening exercises the outline of the work was read and the members began the discussion of the subjects.

The first thing on the program was an analysis in composition of numbers, multiplication of fractions, interest and percentage by Prof. A. M. Ragsdale. The subjects were very ably discussed and the number was highly appreciated.

Miss Mary Raney discussed primary reading. The length of lessons, preparation of lessons by the pupils, and the preparation the teacher should make were all taken up separately and fully discussed.

Mrs. Harper discussed the use of pictures in the school work and also the folly of rapid promotion of pupils and touched on several other very interesting points in the school work. The meeting was adjourned until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Spelling was taken up this afternoon and discussed by Miss Harper. She told how best to teach this branch and also remarked on the best books and the best manner in which to interest the pupil. She also touched on the best manner to teach dictation marks. The discussion was very interesting and was highly appreciated.

Prof. J. W. Smith talked on writing and remarked on the grade where it should be introduced with the best advantages to the pupil. He also stated the best hour for practice but this point is contented and no two teachers will hardly agree on the point. Prof. Smith remarked on the advantage of the slant and vertical hand and the best methods of teaching the same.

The session was then adjourned until tomorrow morning at 8:30. The work is just one-half day behind. This was caused by the speakers taking a little too much time in their discussions and also in the delay of the members' arrival. The work will be caught up however without any very great difficulty.

INSPECTOR HESSIG MUCH GRATIFIED AT HIS INSPECTIONS HERE.

From Tuesday's daily.

Meat and Milk Inspector HESSIG has made several tests of the local milk dealers' goods and so far has found no impurities in the milk. He stopped several milk wagons on the street and made the tests and was very much gratified to find the fluid in every respect.

When interviewed on the subject of impure milk he said he did not think he would find any in Paducah as all the dairies he had visited, and he had visited them all and does so every week, are clean and the milk is not "doctored" as in some places. Dr. HESSIG is at Kuttawa today enjoying a much needed and well earned rest.

BLACKBURN-BLACKBURN. KENTUCKY SENATOR SOON TO WED A WASHINGTON WIDOW.

Washington, August 6.—An engagement of interest which, it is reported here, will shortly be announced is that of Senator Jo C. Blackburn of Kentucky to Mrs. Mary Blackburn of this city. Mrs. Blackburn is the widow of Judge H. H. Blackburn of Martinsburg, W. Va. Her husband died four years ago and she accepted a position in the war department two years later, resigning last week. The wedding it is understood, will take place soon.

They are frame buildings, and there are in contemplation many brick buildings as well. There are now contracts to be let in a few days for three large brick buildings, the location of which has not yet been made public.

The Masonic-Odd Fellows building on Broadway near Fifth will probably be under way before very long as soon as the directors decide on the amount of money to expend in its construction. The present plans call for a magnificent structure to cost about $65,000, and if the money can be raised it will be started at once. If not a less costly one will be built.

The new Ogilvie building at Fourth and Broadway is nearly complete, and is an ornament to the city. It is in the hands of the plasterers, and will soon be ready for occupancy. It is one of the finest edifices in this part of the state.

The new opera house is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for the opening next month. The decorators now have charge, and the public will be astonished at the magnificence displayed, when the handsome new Kentucky is thrown open for the season.

Among the localities rapidly building up are Little's and Worton's Additions. The houses are all frame, but convenient, and find ready tenants.

In many localities the population has so increased that the city is called upon at nearly every council meeting to provide street improvements and sidewalks, and extend water mains.

Another building that will give work to a large number of men will be the new planning department of the Illinois Central shops, which will be rebuilt as soon as the debris can be cleared away and the plans and specifications prepared. It will cost several thousand dollars and will be more modern than the old building.

Novel Attempt at Journalism.

An editor out in Missouri wrote to a number of farmers asking them to send him the news of their several neighbors. Here is one reply: "We have two school masters, the hog cholera, about fifty bushels of potatoes, and a d-d fool who married a cross-eyed girl because she had a mule and forty acres of land, which the same being yours truly."

Among those who assisted President Monroe to lay the corner stone of an arsenal at Philadelphia was Frederick Fraley, who was then 13 years of age. He is now 94, and is the oldest active business man in Philadelphia.

As the canary breeding establishments of Germany only the male birds are valued, for the females never sing. The method of training the birds to sing is to put them in a room where there is an automatic whistle, which they all strive to imitate. The breeder listens to the efforts of the birds and picks out the most apt pupils, which are then placed in another room for further instruction.

Protection from Yellow Fever.

A recent cable dispatch from Maricao concerning the causation of yellow fever states that five soldiers who had been sleeping in infected beds and wearing infected clothes for twenty days, but who have protected themselves from mosquitoes had not shown any symptoms of the disease.

Spanish Bullfights Are Popular.

The brutal Spanish bull fights are as popular as ever in that land. The average number of horses killed in Spain every year exceeds 5,000, while from 1,000 to 1,200 bulls are sacrificed.

VERY ACTIVE

From Tuesday's daily.

Paducah is growing rapidly in every direction. While the records in City Engineer Wilcox's office do not show an unusually large number of buildings in course of construction, many are nevertheless being built, and a well known lumber firm during the past few days has sold bills for forty complete houses, all of which are to be begun at once.

They are frame buildings, and there are in contemplation many brick buildings as well. There are now contracts to be let in a few days for three large brick buildings, the location of which has not yet been made public.

The Masonic-Odd Fellows building on Broadway near Fifth will probably be under way before very long as soon as the directors decide on the amount of money to expend in its construction. The present plans call for a magnificent structure to cost about $65,000, and if the money can be raised it will be started at once. If not a less costly one will be built.

The new Ogilvie building at Fourth and Broadway is nearly complete, and is an ornament to the city. It is in the hands of the plasterers, and will soon be ready for occupancy. It is one of the finest edifices in this part of the state.

The new opera house is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for the opening next month. The decorators now have charge, and the public will be astonished at the magnificence displayed, when the handsome new Kentucky is thrown open for the season.

Among the localities rapidly building up are Little's and Worton's Additions. The houses are all frame, but convenient, and find ready tenants.

In many localities the population has so increased that the city is called upon at nearly every council meeting to provide street improvements and sidewalks, and extend water mains.

Another building that will give work to a large number of men will be the new planning department of the Illinois Central shops, which will be rebuilt as soon as the debris can be cleared away and the plans and specifications prepared. It will cost several thousand dollars and will be more modern than the old building.

Novel Attempt at Journalism.

An editor out in Missouri wrote to a number of farmers asking them to send him the news of their several neighbors. Here is one reply: "We have two school masters, the hog cholera, about fifty bushels of potatoes, and a d-d fool who married a cross-eyed girl because she had a mule and forty acres of land, which the same being yours truly."

Russian House Ancient.

The fact that sometimes it is called the "Russian blouse" dress indicates that the small coats which the bits of boys wear have influenced the acceptance of the exceedingly long waist for their sisters.

On the other hand, Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, who perhaps knows more than anybody else about what a woman may wear becomingly, has said repeatedly that the natural dividing line in feminine garments, if one means to wear a belt or girdle, is around the body under the arms or several inches (in front) below the usual belt mark. The costume of Cleopatra, as tradition represents them, show the jeweled girdle worn after much the same mode as the low belt with the children's Russian blouse, or the inserting of lace and embroidery, which nearly always circles the little gowns of the extremely fashionable moment, where the frill and body of the dress join.
